JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Horacio Yepiz, is hereby committed on Counts 1, 2, 3, and 5 of the Second-Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of Life.

This term consists of Life on each of Counts 1, 2, 3, and 5, to be served concurrently, and Life on Count 24, to be served consecutive to the terms imposed on Counts 1, 2, 3, and 5.

The Court concludes in order to achieve a reasonable punishment for these offenses and pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 5G1.3(c), the foregoing term shall be served consecutively to the term of imprisonment imposed in United States District Court - Central District of California, Docket No. CR05-00353-JFW.

Should the defendant be released from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 5 years. This term consists of 5 years on each of Counts 1, 2, 3, 5, and 24 of the Second-Superseding Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently, under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;

USA vs. Horacio Yepiz

Docket No.: CR 05-578 B-JFW

2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. The defendant may not associate with anyone known to him to be a Vineland Boys gang member or persons associated with the Vineland Boys gang, with the exception of his family members. He may not knowingly wear, display, use or possess any Vineland Boys gang insignias, emblems, badges, buttons, caps, hats, jackets, shoes, or any other clothing, which evidences affiliation with the Vineland Boys gang, and may not knowingly display any Vineland Boys signs or gestures;
4. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to him to be a location where members of the Vineland Boys gang meet and/or assemble;
5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports to the mental health treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information, excluding the Presentence Report, to State or local social service agencies, such as the California Department of Social Services, for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $500, which is due immediately.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine.

Court recommends that the defendant be placed in a facility located in Southern California that can provide the necessary mental health treatment for the defendant.

Defendant informed of right to appeal.

On the Government's Motion, the Court orders any remaining Counts in the Second Superseding Indictment as well as all Underlying Indictments dismissed as to this defendant only.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
